This is funny...

Apparently, I'm the cause of every problem imaginable... "that darn aircraftkiller caused an earthquake because he makes stuff that people use. DAMN HIM TO HELL."

That was a thread about Titan1x77leaving the community... only to change his mind six hours later when someone said "your stuff is played."

This would be why Kirby said that Renegade's modification community is pathetic... "if you dont run what I make im gona leave omg" :rolleyes:
