you should probably make it so that it doesn't work on unladderd games. because most cheats, i believe, only work in unladderd games. that would be very stupid if you kicked somebody from an unladderd game if the cheat does not give them any help on ladder points. and wasnt the point of unladderd games to make it so that you can cheat? or just for practice?

and will this just be for the servers that download renguard, or will it be for all servers wether they want it or not?
