i had an idea like that and it was semi-successful. i let it die because i had no way of playing Renegade any more due to the fact that my laptop was taken away. back in may of 2002, the Renegade community didn't want this...but could have done a 180 for all i know.

Infact...here is the link to the post i had not all that long ago.

of course...those links don't work anymore.
