Hey, why don't you relax a bit eh?

The "fuck them" was a quote hence the quote marks around it. I don't see how it's "self serving". I said numerous times that I didn't leave bitter or in anger. You had every right to want to protect your server. I wanted to protect it too. By changing irc.forcesofdiversion.com to point to my box, it would have stopped any attack against your box related to IRC. I was going to point it back in your direction in a couple days.

If I had wanted to be bitter and mean, I would have made <http://www.forcesofdiversion.com> point to my website, and I would have made your teamspeak url point to mine. But instead I didn't. I'm not saying I did you a favor. I was just trying to leave the server in the best condition I could to try and dissuade attacks and make sure you guys were operational in the future. Instead I get attacked like this. Bitterness and anger would be me uninstalling shit on your server and deleting vital information. Did I do that? Nope. I set up your IRCd and services to function independent of my network, and I deleted nothing.

I understand your wanting to delink. I thought it was appropriate too. I was ready for it. But assigning me ANY of the blame for the attacks against me was rude, immature, disrespectful, and downright ignorant. You as a member of law enforcement know that the victim is not at fault. 100% of the blame falls on the criminal's shoulders. There is nothing in this world I could have done to deserve federal laws broken against me. That's like saying the woman in the short shorts jogging in the park is to blame when she's raped.

I also find it interesting that even after I de-linked you made a couple last-ditch efforts for me to reverse my decision and talk about our difference of opinions in how to deal with script kiddies. Now you're all about "distancing yourself blah blah blah". Yeah, NOW you want to distance yourself.

If my "goddamn actions" are not allowing every lowlife script kiddie to connect to my servers and use the bandwidth I pay for, then I do accept responsibility. I am laying out more money per month than I ever intended to. I went from $20 per month for hosting my site to $255 per month because of these attacks.

Zerk, he's right. You don't know what you're talking about. I helped found the FoD clan and I was in charge of the internet services. I bought the domain for the clan, and I intend to point irc.fod to the clan's irc server after this transition period. That was always my intention.

I do not blame the FoD clan for not wanting to be associated with my server. It's not my fault that these immature children want to project their irrational and unjustified anger onto my friends instead of just taking it out on me, but they do, and if they wanted to delink, that's fine. All my actions in the last few days have been in my attempt to make a clean break from the clan and not turn everything into a public spectacle that it now is. I have no right or reason to be angry with the FoD Clan. What little anger I have is directed at foenixz for his unfounded accusations and assumptions as to the blame in the attacks I suffer.

[17:27] [@foenixz]: I don't need any of this
[17:27] [@Crimson]: You think I do?
[17:27] [@foenixz]: I will not have my server brought because of you
[17:27] [@Crimson]: because of ME?!
[17:27] [@foenixz]: that has happened three times
[17:28] [@foenixz]: it cost me over 200 to clean up the mess
[17:28] [@foenixz]: yes in july
[17:28] [@foenixz]: they hit my box
[17:28] : @Crimson laughs
[17:28] [@Crimson]: c'mon
[17:28] [@Crimson]: You know this isn't my fault
[17:28] [@foenixz]: you don't make any better do you
[17:28] [@foenixz]: I can ignore them
[17:28] [@Crimson]: What do you expect me to do?
[17:28] [@foenixz]: leave them alone
[17:28] [@Crimson]: Uh, I DO!
[17:28] [@foenixz]: who cares if they threaten
[17:28] [@Crimson]: They come in when they get bored
[17:29] [@Crimson]: I get hit when I'm not even online for days
[17:29] [@Crimson]: They need no motivation
[17:29] [@foenixz]: so you oblige them by giving them a reason to attack you
[17:29] [@Crimson]: a reason?
[17:29] [@Crimson]: So I'm supposed to let them come on the network and in my channels and be like "haha I am a script kiddie so I get to break your rules"?
