Clan UC, Unholy Crusaders, is a clan that started about a month ago now. We have expanded into 3 different games thus far, own a website and a forum, are in the process of compiling multiple servers, and setting up services in which members can buy email for 1 pound a year and also webhosting for 5 pounds per month (this may go down shortly).

We are becoming a very active clan and hopefully very large. In renegade, people look to join the clan with the most skill RIGHT NOW, however UC has practices everyday and there is usually 2 or more members online. Our website is expanding rapidly as well.

In one month we accumulated the leadership and support for three games, 40 members, over 2500 posts, a domain and a large webhost, and we are now setting up services for our members and the public.

As you can see, we are growing rapidly, and so is our skill in renegade. If you want to join us in renegade, war craft 3, generals, please view our site.

We also are looking to enter SWG, but we need at least 10 members willing to join this before we go for it. if interested in this, please make a post on our forums.

Thanks,
zerk
