Wrong again.

ACK is my friend, but I am not posting this in his defense. I'm tired of people who do nothing but shovel ad hominem over and over again, and call it an argument. You are one of those people, who think their opinion will influence people to join them.

I'm not going to waste any more of my time repoding to you, as it is futile to get my message across that empty head of yours.

ONLY POST IF IT IS RELEVANT TO THE TOPIC FFS!

EDIT: This was directed to Jelly.
