First off No char. Can see SBH's any better then another Char. Flamethrowers shoot more so if theres an sbh in the range of a flamethrower and the flamethrower just shoots randomly theres a good chance the sbh will light up, same goes for a chemsprayer. You cant see SBH's as well in tanks as you can as infentry.

As for the idea that maybe he wasnt cheating and just got lucky, After killing a Light tank that just rushed behind the factory then going straight behind the bar. on walls flying to RUN OVER a SBH when the orca has no idea if theres even an sbh in the game.
