Picture this, its Islands and I'm an SBH walking threwh the water at the front of there base (tunnels were mind...whatever) so i see a Humvee coming.

I try to hide at that little spot to the right of the water in front of the Gd base (between the rock and the tank entrance) the Humvee comes and shoots me some how, I'm thinking saw me and slipped because of force of habit.

But anyway i run to the rock and the Humvee follows and starts circling around the rock. He has know idea i am there anymore Yet he keeps circling around the rock shooting around.

So i say to my self "OK fuck it" and run out (he shouldn't be able to see me and the chance of him lighting me up were slim) So i run out toward the back of the ref then to the front of it. He immediately turns around and starts shooting toward the front of the ref lights me up then kills me.

Sound Modifier or Stealth Skin?
