And exactly what words in the Bible are questionable?

I think you misunderstood what I meant. I meant that some of the so-called "morals" of the Bible are questionable.

God sending plagues on Egypt to literally kill other humans, God smiting Sodom and Gamora. Thats just two example of a vengeful God. There is a difference between slapping someone on the wrist and breaking their neck.

I can't answer all the questions, but I can say that if God wanted to be believed by all through and through, He wouldn't go around killing the people He claims to love.
