

---

Subject: Why do you think?

Posted by ohmybad on Tue, 13 Jan 2004 21:35:49 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Religion was created to serve as an explanation to things that we can not explain. For instance along time ago before we had the idea that we were created from single celled organisms, we had no explanation of why we came to be so we said "God must have created us". In my opinion "god" was created by humans as an excuse for things that happen and to give us comfort by thinking there is someone out there looking over us.

---