The following are the official rules for the "n00bsvr01" server. If anyone wishes to play on said server, please make sure you know these rules like the back of your hand. (If, for some reason, you have never become aquatinted with the back of your hand, please give it a glance now. In fact, take a picture of it and place it next to your computer screen. Glance at it once an hour.)

Allowed Characters/Vehicles: It's all out war, so no units are disallowed.

Swearing: I do not mind swearing, but certain racial slurs do not have any place in any discussion. If your language is found to be excessively abusive, you will be given one warning, followed by a ban from the server.

Abuse/Being a pain: Any player seen being excessively rude and/or annoying to any player may find themselves kicked from the server. This includes complaining about lag, complaining about the way the server is run, or complaining that people are "pointwhoring".

Map Bugs: Every server has different policies on which bugs to allow and which not.

patch of grass directly outside the GDI base is considered a Base-to-Base from.

of base defences is allowed.

give you a leg-up over a wall in real life. The only case where this is not tolerated is where it is used to get onto places you are not supposed to be, I.E. The roof or the Refinery on non-flying maps.

Point Whoring: Yes, we all hate it. But, if you cannot get the man-power out to kill "That darned MRLS hitting your Refinery, I'd say your cause is pretty much lost.

Harvy Blocking: Prohibited. Don't block it or you'll be kicked.

Shooting through the WF glass: Prohibited. Don't do it or you'll be kicked.

Moderators: We all have days where we don't agree with moderating decisions. However, please trust the moderators decisions, as I have placed my trust in them to do a damn fine job. Especially that DaveGMM guy. He's the best.

By playing on my server, you agree to these rules.

Rules RIGHT ON n00bstories. Notice the WF Glass is right on there, and it has been on there for a long time. How is that changing the rules? If we charge a person with treason they will not say "Nuh uh! You made that up just now you l00ser... Your government are such n00bs just cause I Owned some intelligence important to national security and gave it to the bad dudes. Stupid country can't stand being Owned" No I'm pretty sure that's been in the declaration of independence, oh... I'm sure at least a FEW years...
