the answer is:

shoot tanks.

u will contribute to several things at the same time:

- [1] your teams score
- [2] your score
- [3] the tanks armor getting lower
- [4] your money getting higher for more snipers.

Its one of the reasons you see people screaming at stank drivers, and mammy drivers. You get 20-odd and 12 points respectively per hit on these vehicles. This will make you a lot of money really fast, so if you decide to buy a tank/beacon/expensive character you can do it even without a refinery. Enjoy!
