Me and a couple of friends are going to be creating a new clan soon, and we have a pretty good base, saying we can get the other 2 guys to join. Anyways, we're gonna have a loose clan setup with no real leader, but people with different functions, such as Tactical officer, recruitment officer..... you get the picture i hope. We want players who are on from bout 7:30-11:30 P.M. Eastern time. We're looking for talent, not point standings in various servers, you must be a team player, and a mic will get you some leverage above others.
