kriegervAircraftkillerFacts don't change, right? You're having faith in human ignorance and delusions.

Personally, I'll take God over the self-serving crap you "god doesnt exist, because i somehow no it!" people feed everyone.

God is a human delusion. Just read the history books and you know why.

Everything in the bible is a nice fantasy.

Well, thats not exactly true. You can't prove God is a delusion. In fact, I dare you to prove He is a delusion. The Bible was written by many different authours over a course of a long period of time. It's highly unlikely the whole book is ficticious. But even if it is; the morals in the Bible are still good morals to live by.

I don't mean that I agree with all the morals in the Bible -- I even find some of the context to be questionable. Ezekiel's story, for example.
