Hello, I am imdgr8one of Fist of Fate(yeah I'm the new guy), a new mod for Command and Conquer: Renegade. The mod itself is a very interesting mod, and includes some melee weapons and yee old times weapons also. It will be very fun to play, with an outstanding staff including Titan(Mapper who has made Lightwave 1 and 2, Terrace, and many more popular renegade maps), Psychoarmy (Mastered firing animations and made the first functional attack dog) and many more. The mod is very unique, so you can form your own opinion over these nice screens of models we have made up.

- A crossbow.
- A catapult.
- A seisure Gun.

The current site for the mod is at <http://fof.deadlyfear.com>, but we will be launching a new and improved site very soon, but the fact remains, we need soem forum activity! So sign up today!
