
Subject: Video Boolean Tutorial Made By me
Posted by Sir Phoenixx on Fri, 14 Mar 2003 15:34:37 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

There's not that much to it... Just click an object, click on Boolean under Compounds in the Create tab, than click on Pick Operand B and pick the object you want to use to cut a hole in the first object. If you want to unite objects instead of subtract them than just click on Union A-B, and click pick operand B and the object.
