Whatever happened to the Hovercraft?

I never see it in any maps. And its usefull if it can be rigged to work.

Its been there since TD! I would have thought that someone used it by now. And if it isn't useable yet, the model and texture is there, it can certainly be boned etc.

Ya its slow and chunky, but it has good armor and its amphibious. It should be able to go where other vehicles can't. (That may be hard to do, but there is probably a way to do it.)

And Jonwil, if there is a way to make the hovercraft go where other vehicles can't, try to make a script to make it possible. (Had to get that in before the 1.4 deadline)
