DaveGMMI don't believe that you can legally charge people extra for either WOLSPY or GSA.

Why? Simple. I doubt you would wish to pay DeeJay or Gamespy royalties. Did you make WolSpy? No. Do you have DeeJay's permission to charge for an application he made "freeware"? No.

I think.

As long as his income doesn't exceed what he's paying for the bandwidth, then it's fine. As in essence, he's charging for the bandwidth usage, not the program.
