GusIs WOL down?

Thanks!

Same thing i get sometimes: unable to connect to westwood online

sometimes locating servers > operation timed out just ignore it click ok/cancel respectively and reconnect...

have you also noticed that wonderful crash bug....when you disconnect from a game it says leaving channel and times out....but you are still connected for 3minutes (like a ping? pong! event on IRC) you will eventually disconnect but it means using a different nick for a while to avoid this connect to a random game using a different name leave and change names this refreshes your connection and you will be able to use your regular name

If anyone can make sense of that ^ i'll give you a medal
