A while ago I got to a page on renevo.com with the RenAlert servers (all n00bstories.com servers? Don't remember anymore) on it. I also downloaded and installed the thingie so IExplore accepts links to servers, but I can't find the page with the server links on renevo.com anymore. The main site isn't really helpful, and searching these forums didn't help either.

Anyone knows which page I mean (and has the link)? I came there in the first place by a link on a forum, but I don't remember if it was this forum or the old RenAlert forum or perhaps an entirely different one.
