power like he did at RenRealm and other places.

Some months ago he was given moderator powers in the Mod forum and the very things that the public feared and predicted started happening again. At that time I held my tongue in order to see how it played out and I must admit you have been pretty much on top of things when they go to feel that a majority of this could have been avoided had "we" stuck with the plan.

George Santayana Those who ignore history are doomed to repeat it.

Putting that aside, you do have some great people/minds gathered in Blackhand Studios, each of whom bring a lot to the table. I have no doubt great things are sure to come from it.
