I love some of those pictures. I kind of wish they would have kept that buggy and that orca carrier, although, if they would have made that buggy, they would have made some code for the people to actually be seen inside the vehicle (kind of like Battlefield 1942). I like how Sole Survivor is making Renegade how it once was, but I wish they used the old beta models.

I love that Commando site though, keep up the good work!
