My first RTS was dune2. I played dune2, TD, and RA, only on a 486 4 mb ram later 8, in dos. For TS I got a p3 450. So for me the graphics and speed of TS were better then I was used to. And I must say I like TS. I never played RA on the internet, simply because at the time TS was released I also finally got a internet connection. (Ah the times of visiting, sites like tiberiumsun.com daily). So I can't really compare TS to the older ones at the point.

But my favorite still is TD (dos version).
