ACK, if YOU want to call them textures, fine. Im sure the millions of gamers and game producers around the world who call them "skins" are absolute idiots. You must be the gaming messiah.

Quote:Nice, but it's been done too much. I'd be impressed if you actually made your own replacement 3D meshes with UV unwrap and texture.

me too! i can uv unwrap and make original textures, but i can't model. if someone gave me an inf model, id be glad to bring it to life.
