Quote: i wanna know exactly were the freggin new scope skin is that changes the nitevision scope into clear hunters style

I am assuming you mean a scope like the one used in Renalert(changes green part to clear but leaves black around scope) and not the one posted below which lets you zoom with whole screen.

Note: This is not me, I got this picture off the internet. I didn't want to link directly to the site or people would know where to get cheats.
