ACK, everyone is entitled to their opinion, as many others have. One can often take things too far, hmm...I wonder what I could be talking about...

Food for thought: If you don't approve of something, express your opinion, but after you do that, leave it alone. I'm not saying you can't defend your point, but you don't need to take it beyond necessary. And don't be bullshitting yourself and others by saying that it is necessary for you to kill Reborn. It will die all by itself if it's horrible. Whether or not you like it or approve of it, may only change a few opinions but it's not gonna be enough to kill it. I know you would like to be known as the one who killed Reborn, even if you didn't, but seriously, just drop it. You've proven your point, over and over and over again. I haven't played Reborn so I don't have an opinion over the mod. Reborn may be absolutely horrible to the point where your bashing is necessary, but I doubt that's the case.
