In today's world, when enough people believe something whether it be opinion or not, it becomes accepted as truth. And I know that plenty of members here believe you are going too far. Since the members of this community think you are going too far, I am accepting your going too far as truth. Still may be an opinion, but it's being accepted as truth.

All I was tryin to do with that post was to nicely say SHUT THE FUCK UP, YOU FUCKING ARROGANT WANNABE "KNOW IT ALL" MOTHER FUCKER. Since you didn't take my hint, I had to resort to saying it flat out. Flame me all you want, say all the shit you want to me. Maybe that will make you lay the fuck off of the Reborn mod.

Oh and those "grandma-like" women at the barber shop don't count. You should know that those old women can't say anything bad. They're just being extremely nice to you. It's probably killing them inside to compliment you. Sorry, the truth hurts.
