da_shizany other day and I would continue to go back and forth with you...today is just so blah that I can't care to go on with this bullshit. and just cause i decide to go with the crowd doesn't mean i can't think for myself. How else would i have decided to go with it? I thought for myself...no one told me to think this way.

Right, and that's why you keep replying... :rolleyes: And why you can't even follow what you say. Figures...
