yeah, it seems PsychoArmy has just popped into the forums for about a year now, shows something relatively interesting, such as his "Stick Death Xtreme 2 mod" or the small bones mod that featured the small infantry as well as playing as a dog/a similar looking alien creature from Half-Life. Last thing I think he ever showed and actually gave out was the first "Stick Death" which sucked compared to all the ideas in the second version that was supposed to be completed, and a mod called ARRRRG_V2, which was semi-interesting having new vehicle models. Don't count on him giving out something unless he has someone right behind him pushing him along.
