the pope has no power at all, he's just a politcal figure in my eyes.

If the pope says, "Jump!" I'll say "Why ain't u jumpin'?"

Now I need to get help from my teacher with an answer to ur response. All I know is that your statement is false. Not quite sure how I'm gonna support that point by myself.

Kids, this is why it is so important to read your Bible every day.
