BlazerSS217uall sux, caus-a we got here first

Nice attitude...I didn't know there was a competition

From speaking to vloktboky, I knew weeks ago this was coming. I wish server-side scripts.dll mods were discovered like a year ago, we would probably have kept more players around.

Good work vloktboky. Hopefully this will be shared, or is it going to be a black-cell only thing?

Hah, just remember Blazer Released his work to everyone, was the first person to even have the idea of a in game bot. SO HE GOT THERE FIRST BEFORE ANYONE.

b.t.w. nice work, but please do not realse this scripts.dll thing to the public, the amount of cheating that could happen in clan games is now insane. H0me team is low on creds? no probs, here 500 on the house
