eggmacKIRBY098Maybe he's French...

No, I am a Jew living in Germany being born in Russia and studying English.

Why do I find this to be slightly.....untrue?

It seems that you made sure that your ethnic background was politically correct. Sorry egg, this is a description I just can't believe.

As for this war and WWII. WWII was a justified war, and many people from the global press in the past 15 years have compared Saddam to Hitler. The time has come for the US to finish a war that started 12 years ago.
