You can easily ignore it if you have any sort of individual will.

My problem is not one of will, but of time.

I have better things to do in my life than read crap from two people slamming each other. I am fed up with opening posts that basically say "I hate you, your mother and every piece of work you have ever produced".

It comes down to the point that I don't care if person A hates person B.

If Crimson or Blazer could take 10 seconds to "attempt to" solve this I would be greatly appreciative.

Note: I am not leveling this at any particular person there a quite a few people (possibly including some of my old posts) that have made these kind of comments.
