I must say, that cheat is hella fun to screw around with. I completed two laps around City Flying in less than a minute with a hotwire, speeding past the Obelisk and turrets before they had a chance to hit me.

There is a disadvantage to it, however. A fall from any height can kill you, even from ramps.

This cheat seems very dangerous, but so far it only seems to work if the host has it as well. So I guess it can only be used for shits and giggles, nothing more.
