Ya good job on making him an Op on a support channel so he can come and play God. Wtf is he doing in there anyway? The moron goes around saying who renegade is horrible and how his precious RectumAlert so COOL.

No one will get any help when this jackass in there. He has no purpose there he doesn't play renegade only his mod nor does he host servers so wtf is the point in giving him ops? Just so that he can ban people.

puft, those goes around, and I'm dropping renguard. I'm sure with all the problems other people will too.
