Mr God of DeathAlso I know why most people hate Alk! Because the UN servers are the most popular servers and are almost always full! So shove it all of you!

Right :rolleyes:

He joins the forums, and proceeds to insult anybody who disagrees with him or if their opinion is different from theirs. Hell, he even insulted people who simply replied in a forum thread he disagreed with. He then goes on to call Crimson names and say that Renguard is a total flop, pulling statistics out of his ass simply to back up his "facts".

Now, many people in here grew weary of him and his "I'm holier than thou" routine, myself included. His banning certainly will prove to be a pleasant change of pace in here.
