I don't know if this has anthing to do wih the new renguard patch, but I'll just post it here:

My renguard has been updated, with succes.
So now I run rengade, go online. But when I try to login with my standard username it says:
unable to connect to WOL

So I can't even play online on WOL

anyone know what the problem might be?

I'm running Win XP, 2.0 GHz, DSL
