I'm glad to see we are all grasping the point of this thread!

Aircraftkiller"oh hey, you can't talk to them unless you have their e-mail address!"

Uhh...you have to know someone's s/n to talk with them...so it's the same deal. It seems that AIM is always a step being msn...the whole bottom right screen announcements, the "invisible mode"...all those ideas are ripped from msn.
