First off I think Renguard is a great idea and I am very happy with the idea behind it, I understand that bugs are unavoidable. That does not make me feel any better, here is why... Renguard auto updated, maybe if you guys knew there were even a few problems with the update, the update until a better one was put in its place. I had the problem with my Game.exe crashing, tried work. FINE! No problem, I uninstalled Renegade and reinstalled it. Total time lost trying to fix this thing, over 1 hour. By the time I reinstalled it Westwood was down, not your fault, just the straw that broke the camels back. I love the idea behind Renguard great program, poorly tested before moment. For future reference, learn from Bill Gates mistakes. PLEASE!!! Forgive me for venting, I have earned it this time, believe me.

Thank You
