aurorax0l think that depends on the map, not the side.

on some maps Nod is better, on some GDI is better.

However, overall, i'd have to say i prefer Nod, because i love SBHs, (see sig) and the stank rush ownz just about anything.

The other day on The Pits a stank rush i organized destroyed EVERY GDI building in the span of less than 2:00 minutes.

deffinatly... On none defence maps then nod would win most of the time with there stealth technology but when it comes to defence maps and in big games then you find that G.D.I win allot more.
