Lol....People still play the demo?

And if i remember...Maybe im wrong but the full version didnt have a kick/ban option eathier at first untill the patch for it came out. Maybe they never intended to put one in untill they realized DURING THE FULL VERSION that they needed it. If they only realized it during the full version why would they go back and fix the demo...

The demo was only made to satisfi people for a few weeks before ren came out. I cant believe people would still play it especially with the fact that the full version only cost's 10$
