I think it would be better to have 3 modes of play:

1. Pure mode = the way the game came, absolutely no skins/textures/sounds or anything else that has been user altered.
2. Skin/Texture mode = any skin/texture/sound modification except cheats.
3. Server approved mode = skins/textures/sound modifications the server owner approves.

I don't think pure mode should EVER allow "approved" skins/textures or even sound modifications, afterall that would defeat the purpose of calling it "PURE".
