DeathgodA) You first, you threw out the "people like you" moniker on me.
Phoenix - AeonMy contention was with Deathgods actions, I take an extreme dislike to people who try to harm others, be it physically or emotionally.
This is a personality trait you admitted to having and indeed enjoying. I would also like to apologise for my actions there, neither of us should have to resort to terms such as "people like you", doing so was a reprehensible action on my part.

DeathgodB) I need to justify nothing to anyone besides myself, and the result was the justification for me in this case. It's always amusing to watch the nerdgasm that ensues when you make fun of the cute girl's stupidity.
True, but I was not asking you to justify yourself, as far as I'm concerned there are no justifications for your actions. I am however asking you to explain what you think your justifications are.
Through this understandind I would hope to be able to communicate with you better. Also as I have already said I couldn't give a shit what Rikkye looks like, so please don't assumed that I am defending the cute girls, this is a matter of principle to me.

DeathgodDunno what the hell that has to do with anything. Thanks for reminding us the world is full of mistakes that evolution sadly no longer works against, I guess. Not that I need that, I just take a trip to the mall whenever I need reaffirmation on the lackluster quality of society here in the US.
Absoloutly nothing, but please do enlighten me as to what is wrong with bisexuality and homosexuality. I have a somewhat personal interest in this and as yet no-one has come up with a convincing argument, people can't get it into their head that saying that it's an abomination in the eyes of God isn't going to bother an Athiest.
