AircraftkillerLike five images of a SAM Site, a menu with a Tiberian Sun logo and a blurry C&C logo, plus a decent Buggy and nothing else. Oh, and the little squares for vehicle images on those other pages.

Not very interesting. It's still a bunch of gimmicks without real content.

Um.. can you count? There's only two SAM images.

That menu is based on the original Renegade menu from 2000. It's is nearly perfect clone of it apart from different logo and no glowing ring animation appears when you highlight a item.

Those little squares are tracked vehicle icons.

Of course, if you judge C&C Commando by just looking at this thread, it might look it's just all tricks and no mod.

Did I mention that I have the original Westwood logo movie for C&C Renegade? It shows several weapons (M16A2, pistol, grenades) spinning around and then fades to Westwood logo while EVA says "Update Complete".
