NeoXNah its not a war its the truth!

No, it's an opinion. The original beta release of Reborn wasn't near the quality of the newer versions of Ren Alert (.992 and up), but as far as Renegade mods go it was pretty good. Think about it, all we have is Ren Alert, Reborn, Soul Survivor, plus like 5 others which may or may not finish. This game does not have very many good mods, so so what does the community do? It constantly flames the shit out of the second place mod for not being first. Granted certain people directly involved on both sides may have had reasons to be pissed, but the rest of the people are a bunch of ignorant, jealous assholes.

Reborn is getting better. Whether or not it becomes better than Ren Alert I don't know, all we've seen of it is a fairly buggy beta. But I hope they make it as good as possible, unlike some people who seem to hope they fail just so the mod they chose allegiance to will "win." It's just petty and stupid on both sides.

BTW - good models and skins Renardin.
