SS217We could come up with some crafty lie like he was hacked, but no. I'm going to have to ask you to take his IP off.

Before I submit you have no right to say anything after cheating on our servers and hacking our forums.

I didn't want to remove it -- Blazer did. That IP is available to anyone who knows how to find the IP of a server on WOL. If he doesn't want his IP shown, then he should take the fake servers offline.
