Ok
Well around 12pm EST yesterday I was in teamspeak and my teamspeak just crashed..I tried connecting but it wouldnt work...then I looked in gamespy and I couldnt find my clan servers I also can't play renegade because it gives me the message gameplay is pending....

Im running on XP with Zone alarm as my firewall
This problem has never happened before in the months I've been doing this...btw when I find my clan server on All seeing eye it doesn't allow me to join it wtf is going on?
