It took 5 days for you to post a reply?

Well if you say you look like an ass then I'm inclined to agree with you.

Now I think there are some people here who would like this discussion shifted back on topic.

Yesterday I played a game on the No sniper server. Aircraft were not really that much of a threat until the HON went down. Railgun and PIC were being utilised to their full potential.

Now if only I didn't have the problem where the tracers from the Ramjet, Railgun, and PIC don't show up. If I could have seen the tracers I wouldn't have accused the SBH(which happened to be ACK) who fired at me last of cheating. Although ACK started complaining about not seeing the tracers later on as I recall too.
