rightnutyour reguard has got me banned on battlefield Vietnam.

I like to thank the cock that made this stupid ant cheat and researched it properly. It has fucked with my punkbuster for 1942 Vietnam causing my cd key to be banned. lol you all think but right now Australia is having a $15,000 comp which we are in the top 5, well I say was, you see renguard got my cd key banned to today and I was, or my clan of ten was going to play tonight. if we win we be in 3rd but now we well, forfeit cant make 10 players to the game, well its all over. so I like to thanks the tossers. but don't get me wrong I am all for ant cheats but when a ant cheat get a non cheater banned you have to be pissed hay.

Quote this reguard your mummies must be proud

Another n00b bashing RenGuard. It's not RenGuards fault you got banned. the only time RenGuard runs is while you play Renegade then it shuts off when you exit. So unless you were playing Renegade and BattleField Vietnam at the same time RenGuard had nothing to do with it.

Well AK, the Allied Service Depot looks good, but the Soviet one kind of looks like it is pink and not red. At least it seems like that to me, maybe I was just expecting more of a red color, I don't know I just think that it should be more red because it looks to light right now.
