NodbuggerBeing retarded doesn't help much either,

I have destroyed mammoth tanks with the pistol It took about 15 min. But I did kill it.

Total bullshit unless you were on a multiplayer practice by yourself and was shooting an open mammy....

The artilley owns tanks like it should. The only problem is it very low hp makes it a very easy target. There are always corners though to hid behind and shoot though.

Quote:2. Saying Arties suck in tank fights is the most retarded thing in the world
